

Name	Organization	Email/Phone	Information	Website/Resources	Social Media
Katrina Terrill	Alberta Institute for Wildlife Conservation	education@aiwcc.ca	-located outside Calgary -wildlife rescue centre - get animals from all over Alberta -run about 10 different programs focusing on different groups of wildlife (especially local wildlife) -many animals are coming in because of human interactions -making people aware of the wildlife and how they can protect themselves -offering all programs virtually as well so happy to do presentations in areas outside Calgary -run open houses as well (virtual for now)	https://www.aiwcc.ca/get-involved/wildlife-education/wildlife-education-programs/
Megan Gergatz-McMoran	City of Edmonton	artsattractionsbookings@edmonton.ca	-John Janzen Nature Centre, Muttart Conservatory, Zoo -programming aligns with current science curriculum -virtual gardening on the go and a Q & A. Teacher sends in their questions. -John Janzen has a rooftop garden, signage all a trail beside the centre, and a beehive and an established composting site -there is also recreational activities for kids (outdoor educational programs) - canoeing, snowshoeing	https://www.edmonton.ca/programs_services_for_schools_students_teachers/programs_school_attractions
Sharlene Fritz	Ghost Watershed Alliance Society	sharlene@ghostwatershed.ca	-an online resource including a virtual tour of the Ghost Watershed - 20 minute video describing water monitoring in the Ghost - teacher resource for grade 7 science - ecosystems and interactions	Our organization is the Ghost Watershed Alliance Society: www.ghostwatershed.ca We have online resources including a virtual tour of the Ghost: https://www.ghostwatershed.ca/GWAS/photo-gallery/virtual-fieldtrip.html Plus a 20 minute video describing water monitoring in the Ghost: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KdEN85CjG4o And a teacher resource for Grade 7 Science - Ecosystems and Interactions: https://www.ghostwatershed.ca/GWAS/grade7-science-ecology-lesson-plan.html
Jennifer Janzen Jaclyn Angotti	Alberta Tomorrow CPAWS	janzen@albertatoday.ca jaclyn.angotti@cpaws.org	-satellite office in Pincher Creek area -new biodiversity	www.albertatoday.ca https://cpaws-southwestalberta.org/education	www.facebook.com/AlbertaTomorrow/ https://www.instagram.com/alberta_tomorrow https://twitter.com/AlbertaTomorrow https://www.linkedin.com/company/alberta-tomorrow-foundation/
Nathalie Olsen	Battle River Watershed Alliance		-operate in battle river region -grade 4,6, junior and senior high -citizen science and water monitoring project -there are other watershed groups in each region -caring for our watershed's contest about how to improve their watershed -Students must connect to SDG goals	https://www.battlewatershed.ca/youth-programs/caring-for-our-watershed/	@cpawsab on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter
Sidney Howlett	GreenLearning	sidney@greenlearning.ca	-free -programs around climate, energy -highlighting program Flood Ed - because the one teacher from Fort McMurray mentioned the challenges with flooding -can support teachers with webinars, teacher professional learning -highlighted some programs that relate to the EcoSchools actions	https://greenlearning.ca/programs , https://greenlearning.ca/challenges
Lyse	Big Hill Creek Preservation Society		-works on water quality and gravel pits -interested in citizen science	https://bighillcreek.ca/
Tara Beck	Beaver Hills Biosphere		-just getting their program going so a very exciting time so really looking to connect with others -ebb island national park, battle river watershed and north west/southwest	https://www.beaverhills.ca/
Elaine Lum	Telus Spark Science Centre in Calgary	daine.lum@sparkscience.ca	-did have some classroom programs that brought kids outside to explore a stormwater pond -virtual programs - direct from series - connect with other organizations and showcase what they have done. -partnered with Ocean Wise to do a program about whales -can connect with an expert on site and Telus spark acts as a hub -many students right now can not visit the science centre -very interested in hearing from other people into how they are connecting to climate	https://www.sparkscience.ca/schools/school-programs	Instagram: @telus_spark Facebook: @telusspark Twitter: @TELUS_spark